LANTERN THEATRE OF LONG ISLAND

Live theatre, brought to your door.

Nassau County's longest-running community theatre company. For more than seventy years we've staged comedy and drama — and today we travel, bringing a full production straight to your library, club, or community hall.

OUR STORY

Lantern Theatre began in the 1950s and has offered audiences the finest drama and comedy for generations. Today we're a traveling company: we bring the theatre to your audience, so any library, senior residence, club, or community hall can host live theatre — no stage required. We handle the rest.

FOR LIBRARIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Booking is simple

1. Get in touch
   Call or email Anne Bass with your venue and the kind of program you have in mind.
2. Choose your show & date
   We match a comedy or drama to your audience and lock in a date.
3. We bring it to you
   Our company arrives with everything needed. You just welcome the audience.
